Fall 2014 Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal Request for attempting too many credit hours or pace (cannot graduate on time)

Name: _____ Student ID: _____

To appeal we must have a FAFSA on file for you. Your financial aid file must be complete. In addition, you must request an official transcript from all previously attended colleges. Your appeal will not be reviewed until all of these items have been completed and your official transcripts have been evaluated.

1. What degree are you pursuing at NWACC and what are your long term educational goals?
   _____
   _____
   _____

2. Do you plan on transferring to another college after you graduate from NWACC? If yes, please list the college and degree that you will be pursuing. _____

3. Please explain why you have too many hours for the degree you are seeking at NWACC. If you have an extenuating circumstance please attach documentation.
   _____
   _____
   _____
   _____
   _____
   _____
   _____

If you have ever had a student loan you must complete financial awareness counseling and attach the confirmation to this form. Instructions to complete the counseling:

- go to www.studentloans.gov
- login using your Department of Education pin
- click on complete counseling and the start button under financial awareness counseling
- print confirmation and attach

Please answer the above questions, gather all requested documents and complete financial awareness counseling if required. Attach the documents and financial awareness counseling confirmation to this form and return to the Financial Aid Office. You may scan and email this form and documents to finaid@nwacc.edu or present them in person to our front desk. If you are required to submit official transcripts, they must be received by our Student Record's Office and evaluated before you proceed to the next step. Once everything has been submitted and any official transcripts received have been evaluated, you will be emailed an official appeal advising form. You may then schedule an advising appointment. Please take the form with you to the advising appointment and your advisor will complete the form. You must return the form to the Financial Aid Office prior to the appeal deadline of August 18, 2014.

By signing below you certify:

- The information provided is accurate and true.
- The Financial Aid Office will not process any appeal requests that are incomplete. You must submit all requested documents before the August 18th deadline. Students are not given verbal permission to submit an incomplete appeal.
- If you are enrolled in Spring and/or Summer classes, your appeal will not be reviewed until grades are posted.
- The Appeals Committee's decision is final.
- The appeal decision will be sent to your NWACC email account within three weeks if not sooner. Results of the committee meetings will not be given out over the phone.
- The last day to submit an appeal for the Fall 2014 semester is August 18, 2014.
- The information provided in this appeal is part of your financial aid file. This information will not be shared with other departments in the college. If you need additional resources such as veterans or disability services, it is your responsibility to seek out assistance.

Student's Signature_____Date_____