Welcome Back Days, Aug. 27 & 28, 2008

NorthWest Arkansas Community College's Welcome Back Days were a huge success.

Students enjoyed goodies and signed up for drawings and products from the Arkansas Democrat Gazette, the NWACC Eagle View, the U.S. Army, Barnes and Noble, Best Buy, Buffalo Wild Wings, Camp Bow Wow, Jimmy John's, Kent Dobbs, Lewis & Clark Outfitters, Lifestyles, Inc., McDowell Clinic, the Northwest Arkansas Naturals Baseball Team, Panera Bread, Sam's Club, T Michael's Salon, Verizon Wireless, Walton Arts Center, World Gym, Mary Kay Cosmetics, Embassy Suites, Indulge, McKee Baking, Eureka Pizza and Topps Candy.

One vendor that has been a fixture during Welcome Back events is the Breyer's Ice Cream Truck. It was scheduled to be here this year but the truck brokedown just before the big event. Hopefully we'll see them again soon.

Delcie Kincaid / News Editor
Students visited vendor booths during NorthWest Arkansas Community College's 2008 Welcome Back Days on Aug. 27 in the Student Center.

Delcie Kincaid / News Editor
Sgt. William Catron from the U.S. Army spoke with an NWACC student.

Massage therapy student Tammy Pelt gave nursing student Winnie Lynch five minutes of relaxation on Aug. 27.
Delcie Kincaid / News Editor

Delcie Kincaid / News Editor
Massage therapy student Tammy Pelt took a moment to close her eyes to "center" herself before she began to give Eddie the Eagle a chair massage during the Welcome Back Days event on Aug. 27. Pelt was hosted by NWACC's student newspaper, the Eagle View. For more information on massage, contact Pelt at (479) 521-2550. For more information about the student newspaper, contact the Eagle View at (479) 986-4016 or visit www.nwacc.edu/stunewspaper.

Dustin Wilson from Lewis and Clark Outfitters talked with faculty member Judy Tobler.
Delcie Kincaid / News Editor