

NorthWest Arkansas Community College
Division of Social and Behavioral Sciences,
Education and Wellness, Legal and Protective Services

HIST 2013H (History of American People Since 1877 Honors)

Catalog Description:

Explores the history of American life including constitutional, political, social, intellectual and economic development from Reconstruction to the present. Specific themes will vary by instructor. Please refer to the NWACC Honors Program section in the current catalog for more information.

Prerequisites:

None.

Credit Hours/Contact Hours/Load

hours: 3/3/3

Learning Outcomes:

1. Through an examination of post-Civil War Reconstruction, the student will identify the successes and failures of the Reconstruction period.
2. By observing the impact of industrialization on the American economy and society, the student will describe the impact of industrial growth on farmers, immigrant groups, urban life, and perceptions toward industrialists and unions.
3. Through an examination of the economic, social, and military effects of United States imperialism, the student will identify America's views toward other nations and theirs to us.