In order to take the COMPASS:

- 1) Student must check in at the Admissions Office.

State law requires first-time entering college students to demonstrate academic preparedness in reading, writing, math, and sometimes listening through an approved standardized test.

NWACC offers the COMPASS/ESL test for students to take their initial assessment and for re-testing in one or more sections. No more than three retakes allowed per semester.

This is a self paced computerized test offered at the main campus. You can study for the COMPASS by visiting www.act.org/compass.
