Willy Walton's Chocolate Factory will come to Northwest Arkansas Community College in Bentonville at 9 a.m. Saturday.

Willy Walton's Chocolate Factory, an award-winning educational project developed by the Students in Free Enterprise at the University of Arkansas, will be administered by the Northwest Arkansas Community College SIFE organization.

The curriculum, designed by students in the College of Education, effectively teaches children about the principles of free markets, business ethics, economics, marketing and a number of other business topics.

Registration will be at 8:30 a.m. Saturday in the front lobby of NWACC.
