Northwest Arkansas Community College Students in Free Enterprise members will edit a coloring book with children at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Rogers Public Library.

The coloring book tells the story of a little girl who visits her friend in Mexico. It teaches children about currency exchange.

SIFE project members edited the story line and designed the book. It is not only a coloring book but is also filled with activities, such as mazes and word searches. The group also partnered with the NWACC art department for illustrations.

SIFE expects 25 to 30 elementary-age school children to help with the project. Team members will read the story to the kids, as well as act it out in a skit. The team will provide crayons.

The contact person for the project is Becky Hudson, the college's SIFE president. She may be reached by e-mail at becky-hudson@sbcglobal.net.
