

NWACC again offering citizenship classes

ROGERS – NorthWest Arkansas Community College's Adult Education program is offering U.S. Citizenship classes during the 2007 summer semester.

The classes are free and are available on Tuesday and Thursday from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and from 5:30-8:30 p.m.

The classes are held at the Adult Education Center, 2800 North Second Street, Rogers,

Students learn about the local community, about U.S. government and history, listening, speaking, reading, and writing English skills, about eligibility requirements for U.S. citizenship, the 100 questions used in the citizenship interview, and how to complete the N-400 Application for U.S. Citizenship form.

Students completing this class during the past four years have had 100 percent success passing the citizenship test.

For more information, contact the NWACC Adult Education office at 479-986-6911.