Target Audience/Transferability

Intermediate Arabic II is the fourth semester college-level academic Arabic course offered at NWACC. Course transfers to fulfill most four-year universities' foreign language requirements for a Bachelor of Arts Degree.

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon completion of Intermediate Arabic II, the student will do the following in the four basic skill groups:

Listening

1. Be able to sustain understanding over longer stretches of connected discourse pertinent to course grammar and vocabulary.

Speaking

1. Successfully participate in more complex conversations and class discussions, gradually expanding vocabulary.
2. Ask and answer more difficult questions involving learned material and personal opinions on various topics.
3. Continue to practice correct pronunciation of Arabic sounds, phrases, and words.

Reading

1. Intensification of study of Arabic morphology to facilitate translation and dictionary use.
2. Analyze authentic texts and short literary and cultural readings.

Writing

1. Write statements and questions in present and past tenses.
2. Produce paragraphs related to personal opinions and analyses of contemporary Arabic-language news sources.
