

NorthWest Arkansas Community College
Division of Social and Behavioral Sciences, Education and Wellness, Legal and Protective Services

CMJS 2073 (Police Administration)

Catalog Description:

Focus is placed on the evolution of police management concepts, theories and practices as well as on contemporary issues and approaches. A blend of old and new ideas in regard to motivation, leadership and evaluations are presented to illustrate current issues in police management.

Prerequisites:

None.

Credit Hours/Contact Hours/Load Hours:

3/3/3

Course Objectives:

- Discuss and explain the evolution of police management concepts and organizational theory.
- Recognize the issues and problems unique to police administration in such areas as communications, stress, labor relations, legal requirements, decision making, fiscal management, productivity measurement, and politics.
- Recognize and/or discuss the effect of police management concepts and organizational theory on minority groups and the economically disadvantaged.