

NorthWest Arkansas Community College
Division of Communication and Arts
Communications Department

Course Number and Title

COMM 2403, Oral Interpretation

Catalog Description

Oral Interpretations focuses on the analysis and oral presentation of various literary genres including the essay, prose, poetry, and drama.

Prerequisites

None

Credit/Load/Contact Hours

Three

Target Audience/Transferability

Oral Interpretation is a course designed for communication and theatre majors. The course may transfer toward a degree program requirement or may transfer as an elective.

General Education Outcome(s)

- Students develop higher order thinking skills.
- Students gain awareness of cultural perspectives.
- Students develop effective oral communication skills.
- Students can employ a variety of sources to locate, evaluate, and use information.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students will:

- Locate various types of literature.
- Analyze the literary worth of various types of literature.
- Plan, construct, and deliver a variety of oral presentations.
- Define effective techniques in working together in dyads and groups.
- Use techniques in working together in dyads and groups.
- Recognize the diversity of literature from other cultures.
- Perform literature from other cultures.

Assessment

Assessment required when offering multiple sections of a course is not conducted at this time, as only one section of this course is offered per academic year.

Required Materials

Binder