Target Audience/Transferability

This course is designed as a course for music majors and will transfer as a 1 credit hour ensemble elective. The course is also open to non-majors and will count as an elective toward an Associate of Arts degree and as an elective toward some 4-year degrees. Community members who are not pursuing degrees join without registration for credit.

Student Learning Outcomes

Students will:

- Demonstrate improvement in performance skills, particularly in the area of improvisation
- Show proof of successful public performances
- Discuss the structure and styles of the pieces performed during the semester
- Provide evidence through public performances of effective, disciplined teamwork.

Topics

Titles of musical selections vary each year. Other topics will include jazz theory, harmony, and improvisation strategies. Some selections will be carried from fall to spring terms, and some become part of the permanent repertoire of the group.

Forms of Assessment

- Summary critiques of concerts by students and director.
