

OSHA 2843 Special Topics in Occupational Safety and Health

Catalog Description: Focus on a specialized topic in occupational safety and health to serve student's interest/needs. The specific topic will be announced each semester the course is offered.

Target Audience/Transferability: Successful completion of this course should prepare students for further study in environmental and regulatory science. Transferability should be confirmed with receiving institution.

Prerequisites: None

Credit/Contact/Load hours: 3/3/3

Student Learning Outcomes: Students completing this course will:

- Demonstrate specific knowledge, skills and/or attitudes relevant to the topic focus. These specific outcomes will be listed in the course syllabus.
- Evaluate topic-related problems or situations and formulate appropriate solutions or responses.
- Utilize research and communication skills to prepare a topic-related presentation or paper.

Required Text(s): Varies by topic focus

Topics: Varies by topic focus

Forms of Assessment: Variable methods, which include but are not limited to, written and/or oral presentation using project-based learning methodology, field activities and/or labs.