

Northwest Arkansas Community College
(Social & Behavioral Sciences Division)

Discipline Code

PLSC

Course Number

2933

Course Title

Special Topics in Political Science

Catalog Description

NWACC periodically offers Special Topics courses in Political Science (PLSC) that reflect specific topics of study, which are not part of the standard Political Science discipline curriculum. Students will improve in their abilities to read and analyze the related Political Science subject. Topics and content will vary from semester to semester.

Prerequisites

N/A

Credit Hours

3 credit hours

Contact hours

45 contact hours

Load hours

3 load hours

Semesters Offered

On Demand

ACTS Equivalent

N/A

Grade Mode

A-F

Learning Outcomes

Students will:

- Explain political events or phenomena within the framework of political science

- Analyze theories or concepts used in political science regarding political events or phenomena
- Assess the limits on the power of government or people in domestic or international context
- Compare the historical or social influences on political events or phenomena
- Describe policy alternatives to current political institutions
- Explain the organization and development of varying political systems or patterns of governance
- Assess the influences and processes in which the United States constructs foreign or national security policy
- Synthesize theoretical, empirical, or analytical understandings of political events or phenomena

General Education Outcomes Supported

- N/A

Standard Practices Topics list

- N/A

Learning activities

- N/A

Assessments

- N/A

Grading guidelines

- N/A

