

NorthWest Arkansas Community College
Division of Communication and Arts
International Languages Department

Course Number and Title

SPAN 2033, Spanish for Heritage Speakers

Catalog Description

This course is designed for native or heritage speakers of Spanish. Course objective is the development of reading and writing skills appropriate to academic and professional settings through the study of orthography, grammar, advanced vocabulary, the analysis of literary texts, and the writing of compositions.

Prerequisite

Department Consent

Target Audience/Transferability

Student Learning Outcomes

Listening

- Students will develop comprehension of some unfamiliar dialectal variations of standard Spanish.

Speaking

- Students will communicate more effectively in standard Spanish appropriate to university and professional settings.
- Students will broach topics of public and personal interest and will perform complicated tasks such as describing, narrating, and hypothesizing with increasing accuracy.

Reading

- Students will develop comprehension skills in standard Spanish through discussion and analysis of a variety of written materials.
- Students will identify contributions of Spanish speakers to various areas of U.S. society and the rest of the world.

Writing

- Students will develop competency in spelling, including accurate use of diacritical marks.
- Students will describe and narrate in coherent paragraphs.