

NORTHWEST ARKANSAS COMMUNITY COLLEGE
DIVISION OF COMMUNICATION AND ARTS

Course Number and Title

Dram 1753 Creative Dramatics – Traveling Class

Catalogue Description: This course examines the fundamental principles of drama as an educational tool in working with children. Acting, music, art, and puppetry will be used. Performances are scheduled off-site at area public schools in Rogers and Bentonville. All performances are scheduled during class time.

Prerequisites: None

Credit Hours/Contact Hours/Load Hours: 3

Target Audience/Transferability

This course is designed for students majoring in theatre, art, education, and early child hood education. Creative Dramatics course may transfer to other institutions as an elective.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completing this course, students will:

- Demonstrate applying imagination to character development and physical action.
- Integrate acting skills with visual and auditory mediums

Topics

Acting, music, puppetry, developing props

Forms of Assessment

- Performances
- In class exercises
- Research project